

Metaverse Financial Association Website Privacy Policy

Welcome to the Metaverse Financial Association (hereinafter referred to as the "Association") website. We highly value your privacy and are committed to protecting the security of your personal information. Please read this Privacy Policy (hereinafter referred to as the "Policy") carefully to understand how we collect, use, disclose, and protect your personal information.

1. Information Collection

1.1 Information You Provide

When you register as a member on the Association website, fill out application forms, or participate in other activities, we may collect the following information:

- Personal contact information such as name, address, email address, and phone number.
- Organization information such as company name, position, and company address (applicable to institutional members).
- Other information you voluntarily provide.

1.2 Information Collected Automatically

When you visit the Association website, we may automatically collect the following information:

- Your IP address, browser type, operating system, access times, and the pages you visit.
- Information collected using cookies and similar technologies.

2. Information Use

2.1 Providing and Managing Services

We use your personal information to provide member services, process your applications, notify you of events, and respond to your inquiries.

2.2 Improving Our Services

We may use your information for data analysis and research to improve our services and website experience.

2.3 Communication

We may use your contact information to send you Association-related notices, newsletters, and promotional information. You can opt out of receiving these communications at any time.

3. Information Disclosure

3.1 Disclosure to Third Parties

We will not disclose your personal information to third parties without your consent, except in the following situations:

- We may share your information with trusted third-party service providers to provide the services you request.
- When required by law or in response to legal processes.
- To protect the rights, property, or safety of the Association, its members, or the public.

3.2 International Transfer

Due to the global nature of the internet, your information may be transferred to and stored on servers outside your country or region. In such cases, we will take reasonable measures to protect your information.

4. Information Protection

We take appropriate technical and organizational measures to protect your personal information from unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration, or destruction. These measures include but are not limited to encryption, access controls, and regular security audits.

5. Your Rights

5.1 Access and Correction

You have the right to access and update the personal information we hold about you. To access or correct your information, please contact us using the contact information provided on the Association website.

5.2 Deletion

In certain circumstances, you may request that we delete your personal information. Please note that some information may be retained as required by law or for legitimate business purposes.

5.3 Withdrawal of Consent

You may withdraw your consent for us to process your personal information at any time. However, withdrawing your consent will not affect the lawfulness of processing based on consent before its withdrawal.

6. Third-Party Links

The Association website may contain links to third-party websites. We are not responsible for the privacy policies or content of these websites. We encourage you to review the privacy policies of these third-party websites.

7. Changes to the Privacy Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. Any changes will be posted on the Association website and will take effect immediately upon posting. We encourage you to review this Policy periodically to stay informed about any changes.

Thank you for trusting the Metaverse Financial Association. We are committed to protecting your privacy and aim to provide a transparent privacy policy to give you peace of mind while using our services.
